

State Society

Continued from Page 7.

Harry Madison is home from his vacation trip, which was spent at Yellowstone National park.

Miss Rasmussen leaves shortly for her home in the southern part of Utah.

B. Roberson has returned from his trip to Logan, where he went for a week's sojourn.

The Sanders reunion was held at the First ward chapel the latter part of the past week.

Heber Bennion has left for New York, where he will take boat for Germany. He expects to spend the next two years or more laboring in the mission field.

John Thompson left the fore part of the week for California. He is contemplating spending the winter on the coast.

Lorense Bassett is at Scofield, where he expects to spend the coming winter.

Thomas Moore of Spanish Fork has left for his home after having spent the past month or so here.

The Rev. John Wagener, formerly of Wyoming, but now of Murray, will occupy the pulpit at the Baptist church on West Seventeenth South street in the future. Mr. Hyde has been assigned the pulpit vacated by Mr. Wagener.

The Happy Hour theatre, on State street, was the point of interest for a very enjoyable theatre party one night the first of the week. The party was composed of a number of college boys attending school at Salt Lake. The bill was immensely enjoyed, after which they repaired to the home of the host and an elaborate lunch was eaten.

L. A. Walters is home from Sandy, where he has been spending a day or so.

Miss Minnie Creer of Spanish Fork, but now attending school at Salt Lake, will be here the coming week to spend a day or so with Miss Jennie Powell.

J. C. Bowring has left for Denver, where he intends entering a business college.

EPHRAIM.

One of the pleasant social events of the week was the surprise party given in honor of Mrs. Dr. V. G. Logan at her home on Main street Saturday afternoon. An elaborate lunch was served and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent.

A very pleasant surprise was given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hansen. About forty people were present, who presented them with a purse containing a neat sum of money. A dainty lunch was served, and all present report having spent a very pleasant afternoon.

A fine pair of twin babies arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor Tuesday afternoon, the boy weighing eight pounds and the girl seven.

Peter Johnson of Huntington visited with friends in this city during the early part of the week.

Miss Helen Flemming of Salt Lake is in this city, and will remain here for some time with Miss Lillie Greaves.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bosen are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby girl, Mr. L. Hall and Anna Richards of Mantle were granted a marriage license. The ceremony was performed at the Mantle temple Wednesday.

The stork left a fine baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nate Colvey yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. H. P. Larsen left for Salt Lake, where she will visit for about a week.

Mrs. J. Y. Jensen was given a surprise at her home Monday evening. The officers of the Primary association were all present, and presented Mrs. Jensen with a beautiful salad set. The guests returned to their homes about 11 o'clock, after having partaken of a dainty luncheon.

A ten-pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hansen at an early hour this morning.

Cyrenus Bagley of Greenwich, Plute county, was married at Mantle Wednesday to Luciel Brindley of Wilmont, Plute county.

Mr. and Mrs. Dilbert Rasmussen are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby boy.

Mrs. Fred Rasmussen of Parak City is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Kjelsson.

Mrs. Lawrence Rasmussen of Salt Lake is renewing old acquaintances in this city.

PARK CITY.

Miss Kate Malone was the hostess at a pleasant card party Tuesday evening at her home on Park avenue. After a pleasant time was had in playing games Miss Malone served a dainty lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Rice spent Friday in Park City.

Mrs. John F. Welsh entertained the 500 club Wednesday afternoon at her home. The rooms were prettily decorated in golden glow. The prize was awarded to Mrs. E. J. Beggs.

Mrs. D. Q. Grabill and daughter left Tuesday for their home in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Dr. C. M. Wilson left for Chicago Tuesday.

Mrs. Lawrence McPolin entertained very pleasantly Friday night at cards in honor of Mrs. Sheehan of Eureka.

Mrs. Eldredge of Blackfoot, Ida., spent Sunday in the Park, the guest of Miss Katherine Lawrence.

Thursday evening Mrs. R. J. McCleery entertained at a theatre party, after which a most sumptuous dinner was served.

Mrs. Bransford accompanied Miss Hannah LeCompte to the Park Monday morning, with whom she will visit for some time.

Mrs. Charles Shields went to Salt Lake Saturday, where she will make a thirty-days' visit with friends and relatives.

Tuesday evening Mrs. J. W. Thompson entertained the following guests at dinner in honor of Mrs. Wallace Bransford of Salt Lake: Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Silchert, Mrs. Bransford, Miss Hannah LeCompte and Edward LeCompte.

Thursday evening George Ames entertained the following guests at dinner at the Ontario mine: Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, Dr. and Mrs. E. P. LeCompte, Mrs. Bransford, Mrs. Wilson, Miss Nelson, Mrs. Nelson, Miss LeCompte, Mr. Taylor and Edward LeCompte.

Mrs. J. Frankel is visiting in Ogden.

Mrs. John Shields visited in Salt Lake Wednesday with friends and relatives.

Thursday evening Mrs. Holland entertained at dinner in honor of Mrs. Sheehan of Eureka.

Fred Davis and Dan B. Shields spent Friday in the Park.

Mrs. W. D. Sutton returned from Provo Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Hedges visited in Salt Lake Saturday.

Mrs. Jerry Harrington entertained a large number of friends at dinner Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Clark returned to Park City Thursday.

Mrs. Peter Harrington entertained at dinner Tuesday in compliment to Mrs. Sheehan of Eureka. Covers were laid for twelve.

Charles Rheid was a passenger to Park City Thursday.

Mrs. Wilcox went to Salt Lake Tuesday for a prolonged visit.

Mrs. Dr. E. P. LeCompte and daughter, Miss Hannah, were the hostesses of a delightful card party Thursday complimentary to Mrs. W. V. Rice and Mrs. Wallace Bransford. Twenty-six people were present, and the prizes were won by Mrs. Fred Hayte and Paul Billings.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Harrington visited the fore part of the week in Park City, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Holland.

Miss Ethel Rasband spent Sunday in Salt Lake.

Fred Flint was a passenger to Park City Friday.

Mrs. Wright returned home Wednesday morning after a pleasant two weeks' visit in Salt Lake with friends and relatives.

Friday afternoon Mrs. S. E. Hubbard was the guest of honor at a delightful 500 card party given by Miss Ada Stewart at the home of Mrs. Arthur Williams. The house was tastefully decorated in autumn leaves and cut flowers. Mrs. V. H. Youngberg and Mrs. Henry Welsh were the fortunate prize-winners.

Miss Merle Clark of Salt Lake is visiting in the Park with Mrs. J. J. Kauffman.

Mrs. Lon Buller and daughter returned home Wednesday after a short visit with Mrs. Buller's mother, Mrs. Goodall.

Miss Cora C. Mulgrave returned to Park City Sunday after a short visit in Murray.

Patrick Hurley returned home Thursday after a short visit in Salt Lake.

Mrs. M. M. Condon and children are visiting in Salt Lake with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sullivan.

Mrs. Edward Hurlbut is visiting in Salt Lake for a few days with friends and relatives.

Oliver Allen is visiting in Salt Lake for a few weeks.

Attorney S. B. Wight returned home Tuesday after a short visit in Salt Lake.

William Sobchal went to Salt Lake Wednesday for an extended visit.

John Tracy returned to Butte, Mont., last week after visiting in Park City with his mother, Mrs. Goodall.

The Woodmen of the World planned a successful program and party Friday night after the regular meeting of the lodge.

The Junior class, 1910, of the Park City High school enjoyed a pleasant picnic up the tramway Thursday afternoon. Besides the members of the class, there were present Misses Katherine Cunningham, Minnie L. Cunningham and Cora Mulgrave, Messrs. Griffin, Kearns and Twigg and Mrs. Bridgland.

M. J. Hall returned to Park City Thursday after a most pleasant visit in Salt Lake.

George Smith was among the passengers to Salt Lake Tuesday afternoon. Misses Rhea Riley and Teresa Quinn returned from a most pleasant visit in Salt Lake Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Welsh is visiting in Salt Lake with friends and relatives.

TINTIC.

Nels Nelson spent Sunday at Spanish Fork.

Miss Lettie Sherwood has returned from Salt Lake.

Miss Ruby Fullriede is attending school at Provo.

Miss Pearl Stewardson is home after a visit at the capital.

Superintendent R. S. McCaffery of the new Tintic smelter is in Salt Lake on business.

Mrs. Hector Fraser left on Monday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Hyde, at Nephi.

Miss Maggie Bonner returned last Friday after a visit of a couple of weeks at Salt Lake.

James Crooks and Frank Davis returned last night from a duck-hunting trip to Utah Lake.

Mrs. Otto Schwartz and son, Walter Haguewood, left yesterday afternoon for a visit at the capital.

Mrs. A. J. McPhee is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hopkins at their summer home near Lehi.

Charles Alberg went to Provo on Sunday for the purpose of attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Goldie Gillespie Roylance.

Miss Sadie Hurd returned to her home at Salt Lake yesterday after a pleasant visit with the family of her brother, John W. Hurd.

Charlie Fox is in town again for a few days' visit. Mr. Fox has been in Milford and Frisco for the past few months, and will return to the latter place within a few days.

Isaac Darton spent Sunday at Provo.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thiriot are the guests of friends at Salt Lake.

James P. Driscoll made a business trip to the capital yesterday.

The Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. Irvine on next Thursday.

Edward Lewis returned home on Monday night from the St. Mark's hospital, where he went to receive treatment for a bad dose of lead poisoning. His many friends will be pleased to learn that he is somewhat better at this time.

William Douglas returned Sunday from a week's visit at Salt Lake.

Jerre Driscoll returned Sunday morning after a business trip to the capital.

Mrs. M. R. E. Sullivan was in Payson on a visit on Saturday and Sunday.

August Stewart returned on Sunday after a visit with his family at the capital.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Mickelson returned on Sunday after a short sojourn at the capital.

Miss Versa Thompson of Boise, Ida., is here for a visit with her aunt, Mrs. V. L. Thomas.

Dennis Harrington of the Farragut property in North Tintic returned on Sunday after a business trip to the capital.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Simons of Mammoth went to Payson on Saturday for the purpose of attending the funeral of a relative.

Samuel Ivey, who has been ill at Salt Lake for several weeks, returned home on Sunday. He is recovering from his illness, but it will be some time before he regains his health.

John Kehoe was called to Evanston, Wyo., on Sunday by the illness of one of her children, who has been visiting with relatives in that city for some time.

City Marshal Major Church and wife left on Wednesday for a visit with relatives at Oasis, Utah. Mr. Church will spend a portion of the time in hunting ducks.

The Ladies of the Macabees conducted an enjoyable dance at the pavilion last night in honor of the anniversary of the order. Refreshments were served and the affair was a splendid social success.

Albert Cox was up from Goshen on Monday.

Joseph Wirthlin has been out from the capital during the week.

Miss Mabel Hupfer returned on Sunday after a visit with relatives in Kansas.

A baby boy was born to the wife of Sterling Harris of Robinson on Saturday.

Mrs. T. A. Thurman of Provo was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dennis, this week.

John O. Freckleton and wife went to the capital yesterday afternoon.

John Rawson has accepted a clerical position at the new Tintic smelter.

Hugh Heffernan and M. R. E. Sullivan returned on Monday after a couple of weeks' outing in Provo canyon and the Strawberry valley. They made the trip by team from Eureka and had a pleasant trip.

D. J. Sullivan left on Tuesday for Butte, Mont., where he will spend a few days in visiting his mother and other relatives and friends.

William Dunn went to Provo on Sunday. Mrs. Dunn accompanied him upon his return, and will again make her home in this city. The two oldest children will remain in Provo during the winter for the purpose of attending school.

Miss Claire Camp, a new teacher, arrived last Sunday from Salt Lake, and the following day took charge of the Knightsville schools. Miss Ethel Ivey, who had the Knightsville school last week, is now teaching one of the grades in the Eureka schools.

Mrs. B. N. C. Stott, Mrs. Elsie Stott, Mrs. Charles Kryger and Mrs. H. J. Cramer left on Tuesday for Salt Lake to attend a special session of the grand chapter of the Eastern Star lodge.

BRIGHAM CITY.

Many of our citizens are in attendance at the four-county fair at Ogden and conference at Salt Lake City.

H. D. Page of Boise, Ida., was visiting old friends in Brigham this week.

Wednesday a quilting bee was given at the home of Mrs. Robert Wilson. About twenty of Mrs. Wilson's lady friends were present and after a few hours' sewing refreshments were served.

Willard Hubbard of Willard is visiting her mother, Mrs. O. F. Davis, in this city.

Mrs. J. A. Wixom and Perry Peters attended the Studebaker Bros. annual reunion in Salt Lake City Wednesday.

Mrs. W. H. Craghead was visiting her mother at Farr West one day this week.

President Oleen N. Stohl and John D. Peters were in Malad on Sunday.

Mrs. E. W. Dern was visiting friends at Layton Friday.

Mrs. A. W. Wixom of Garland was in town Monday, the guest of Mrs. S. C. Wixom.

John Holland returned Tuesday from Preston, where he had been visiting old friends.

H. M. Figgins was in Garland on Wednesday.

Miss Edna Jeppson of Lehi was visiting at the home of N. J. Valentine during the week.

Mrs. J. W. Valentine presented her husband with a little daughter the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Louie B. Call returned this week from a pleasant visit with friends in Salt Lake City.

J. C. Wixom was visiting friends in Ogden during the week.

LEHI.

Dr. and Mrs. Holbrook left for Davis county Thursday to attend the wedding of Miss Garn, a sister of Mrs. Holbrook.

Dr. D. D. Bell, director of the Utah experiment station, and Professor L. A. Merrill of Salt Lake City were visitors at the central experiment station this week.

Joseph Biddlecomb, a Goldfield mining man, spent the past week here visiting relatives.

Judge Erickson of Mt. Pleasant and Judge Henderson of Salt Lake City were the guests of Dr. Hasler this week.

Francis W. Kirkham and wife left this week for Palo Alto, Cal., where Mr. Kirkham will attend the Leland Stanford, Jr., university.

Lawney Raymond of Ogden was the guest the past week of Miss Irene Racker.

Mrs. Morgan Evans spent the early half of this week visiting in Salt Lake.

The friends and relatives of John Zimmerman celebrated with him his eighty-eighth anniversary Saturday.

E. Foutz left for Ruby Valley, Nevada, this week, to be absent about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith left this week for Eureka, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. Christina Harrison and daughter are visiting in Provo.

Miss Maid Mayne of Alpine has been the guest of Miss Hazel Bateman during the past week.

Mrs. Emma Jensen and daughter Grace, of Oakley, are the guests of Mrs. C. A. Goates. Miss Jensen will remain in Lehi and attend the high school.

German E. Elsworth, president of the northern states mission, spent the first half of this week with friends in Lehi.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Varney have removed here from American Fork.

Franklin P. Jolley, the eminent entertainer, gave a lecture Saturday evening in the tabernacle under the auspices of the Lehi high school.

Miss Gertrude Campbell of Salt Lake, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Bond, returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. William Bone is visiting relatives in Salt Lake.

BINGHAM.

Al Kilberry was a city visitor Wednesday.

T. J. Hill moved his family to Salt Lake Saturday, where he plans to reside permanently.

Sven Hakensen, teacher of the eighth grade in the Central school, was in Salt Lake the latter part of the week.

Robert E. Taylor of Provo was in camp Thursday.

G. G. Schlep spent the first part of the week in Zion.

W. H. Morse, who has for some time represented the executive committee of the A. S. & R. company, will be no longer stationed here, but will return to the executive headquarters in New York.

T. J. Ellis of Salt Lake was an incoming passenger Wednesday, returning on Thursday morning.

C. F. Warren, general agent of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway system, was in Bingham Wednesday helping to entertain the visiting delegates.

Louis Rogers returned Sunday after a brief trip in the capital.

A. B. Gibson of the Highland Boy was in Salt Lake the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Evans were visitors to the upper town Sunday.

John Hocking was in Zion Monday on a business trip.

Dr. F. E. Straup, who has been attending the convention of the sovereign grand of the Butler-Liberal Mining company, was in Salt Lake Monday visiting his daughter.

Blanche, 3 years of age, who is a patient in the hospital there. Mrs. Robbins is staying with the little one.

Lodge of Odd Fellows at Denver, returned Sunday evening.

Miss Lizzie McGuire of Salt Lake is visiting her sister, Mrs. Thomas Tibble, of Depot ward.

Albert Hanson was a city visitor during the week.

Postmaster C. H. Roberts was in Salt Lake Monday and Tuesday attending the Republican county convention.

C. King was a Sunday visitor to Salt Lake, returning to camp Monday.

The daughter of William J. Ridd, the station master at Bingham, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is greatly improved.

Mrs. M. Ziame returned Friday after a several days' visit to relatives in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Kent Smith of Upper Bingham went to the city Tuesday afternoon to meet her sister from the east. After a few days in the city, they will come to the camp.

The Woodmen of the World are making arrangements for their annual ball on Thanksgiving eve, which will be held in Canyon hall.

Jerome Bourgard was in Salt Lake for several days the first part of the week.

Mr. Dower of Lead Mill was in the capital during the week.

F. H. McCrete, superintendent of the Bingham Utah Mining company, was in Salt Lake Sunday.

Mrs. Graw of Upper Bingham returned Wednesday from Ogden, where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Livingston.

J. W. Horne of Boston and W. J. Hastings, also of Boston, president and treasurer of the Utah-Apex Mining company, were in camp this week inspecting the important work of development which is being done there at the present time. Before leaving both gentlemen expressed themselves as being much pleased with the results.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Gray of Salt Lake were in camp Wednesday visiting their daughter, Miss Mary.

C. L. Countryman went to Salt Lake Wednesday as a delegate to the Democratic county convention.

R. Zwicky of the Miners' Mercantile company went to Zion Sunday.

The weekly dances at Canyon hall every Friday evening continue to be well patronized and enjoyed by all who attend.

Miss Sadie Lawrence of Salt Lake was a camp visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Stringham and Mrs. Walter Ward returned Wednesday after a short visit to American Fork.

Mrs. F. E. Straup was in the capital for a few days the first part of the week.

Mrs. William B. Tracy gave a quilting bee, followed by luncheon, at her residence at Carr Fork Wednesday afternoon to the members of the Ladies' Aid society.

Continued on Page 12.

Over 5000 couples have been furnished with our $98.50 outfit since we started this special offer.

PA. SORENSEN
PRES. & GEN. MGR.
41-51 E 3RD SO. ST. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH
J. J. DALY
VICE PRES.
FURNITURE & CARPET
INSTALLMENT HOUSE
BOTH PHONES EXCH 13

3 rooms
furnished complete for housekeeping.
$98.50.
All the credit you want.

WHAT THIS SALE MEANS TO YOU!

OUR ANNUAL BLUE TAG "MAKE US AN OFFER SALE"

IS A FEATURE WITH US ONCE A YEAR

We mark $100,000 worth of furnishings with a blue tag--you make us an offer. If we only realize net cost on the article it is yours---to be plain, you buy these goods at your own price. When you are down town drop in and look over this immense stock to be sold at the customer's own price.

In addition you will receive coupon tickets on $1000.00 worth of merchandise to be given away absolutely free.

See display windows for full particulars. The heater season is upon us. We will be able to save you considerable on your stove or heater. Buy now and be prepared when the cold weather sets in. Conference visitors make this store your headquarters.

THREE ROOMS FURNISHED COMPLETE, - $98.50

